

The City of Indianapolis began the People's Planning Academy to improve the diversity of community voices in plan decision-making, mainly among civically minded younger residents and underrepresented minorities.

The themes of the 2021 People's Planning Academy included: local history, planning & zoning, redlining & housing discrimination, the history of transit in Indy, affordable housing, and more

A screenshot of a video titled "Intro to Zoning". The video content includes a list of bullet points under the heading "Zoning Ordinance":

- Sets "the rules"
- States what is allowed & what is not allowed
- Includes rules about what buildings and some landscaping should look like
- Regulates special circumstances (like floodplains)

To the right of the text is a video player thumbnail for "Indianapolis Consolidated Zoning/Subdivision Ordinance" with a play button icon. In the bottom right corner, there is a small video feed of a man with glasses speaking. At the bottom of the screen, there is a blue bar with the text "Watch on YouTube ACADEMY/ Zoning 101".
